

Call For Speaker Malaysia Open Source Conference 2012

Area of Interests

Technical topic can be :-

- Cloud Computing and Virtualization
- Social Media
- Big Data
- Big Storage
- Business Intelligence
- Enterprise Resource Management
- Customer Relationship Management
- Voice Over IP
- Programming Language
- Mobile Computing
- Green Data Centre
- Computer Security

Non technical can be :-

- Policy
- Case Study
- Advocacy program
- Patent and Trade Agreement
- Open Source License in Enterprise Environment

With the theme "Enterprising Open Source", MOSC 2012 is set to explore the Open Source technology at the Enterprise level, and to promote the development of local Open Source solution for Enterprise environment to be use worldwide.

Call for speakers is open to all individual, organization, universities, companies and government agencies who is to present on the case study, development, implementation or applications. The working paper must be in knowledge sharing concept. The working paper must not contain marketing materials to promote certain product or company.

Please do note that the closing date for CFP is on March 15, 2012 and the selected paper will be informed after selection process is completed by the committee. For selected speakers you have to submit your presentation slide before May 15, 2012.

Prospective speakers are invited to submit an abstract in 100 - 200 words by using this online form.

<http://portal.mosc.my/call-for-speakers>